Descrizione

From the Carmagnola Hut (2840 m), in the Vallone di Traversiera (Traversiera Valley) (Acceglio), reach La Colletta (2830 m) where you can take the hillside path that cuts the eastern slopes of Mount Bellino and with a sharp turn to the right, you reach the peak (2937 m). Go down the opposite side reaching the col of the same name and continue along the pastures of the Autaret Valley. Avoiding the deviations on the right for Mount Maniglia and Col de Maurin, reach the grazing basin of Gr. Collet. Keep the left going up the river along the grassy cattle-track that leaves the chapel of San Francesco on the left and climbs up to Colle Greguri (2309 m), next to the rocky walls of the Rocca Castello-Provenzale group. The descent towards the village of Chiappera is easy to follow, through meadows and rocks.
