Descrizione

From the center of Limone, go north along the path that leads to the small church in Località S. Maurizio (1,066 m) and continue along the forest trail that leads to Colletto di Cagera (1.577 m), the highest point of the Vermenagna ring and of great scenic value. Continuing towards North-West, take the downhill path that leads to Vernate through the Sausa Valley. The upper part of the path is characterized by beech woods that, descending in altitude, give way to meadows, pastures and chestnut groves in a pleasant setting of rural settlements that have remained unchanged over time and have no road connections. When you reach Tetto Fustin you can turn towards Vernante and close the Stage, or you can take the Renetta Valley and climb to Tetto Colletto, to reach Colla di Prarosso (1,300 m), and from here decide whether to continue towards Robilante or Roaschia (Gesso Valley). The route of the third stage ends near the Church of the Madonnina or Assunta
