Descrizione

Starting from the Via dei Santi, we take a trail that leads us to the top of the hill, through cultivated fields, at the townshp of Morgnano. From here we go on in the SP8, admiring the valleys until we reach the land of Antignano, whose first information dates back to a list of the year 870 d.C. about the possessions of the emperor of the Holy Roman Empire, Lodovico II. There are numerous variations of ownership of the concentric in the history, as well as numerous testimonies, especially churches. About these, we remember the parish church of Beata Vergine del Carmine, the church of Santo Stefano and the one of San Giovanni Battista. We leave the concentric, continuing along the SP8, we cross the village of San Nicola, from which we can go down to the park at the Tanaro's riverbanks. We continue northwards, taking the road in the valley, beautiful viewpoint on Revigliasco d'Asti, that we are crossing. We walk through a very particular area characterized by woods and cultivated fields, and also by the presence of the nearby Tanaro river. Then, we reach the end of the stage, going up the hill and arriving in the concentric of Celle Enomondo, where another trail rejoins the stage.
