Descrizione

Starting from Pialpetta di Groscavallo you climb on path GTA, track n. 321, up to Village Rivotti (1467 m). Then along the balcony path n. 320 we proceed westwards along the dirt road that leads to the mountain pasture Gias Nuove Fontane gradually rising in altitude until 1967 m. Shortly before reaching the alpine pasture at the end of the dirt road, turn downhill to the left on track n. 320. By means of several hairpin bends, you pass the two alps Gias Travet di Sopra and di Sotto, and then to find the forest around the 1630 m of altitude. After having passed through a traverse in north-west direction, you rapidely descends the slope to close the itineray in the village of the bottom of the valley in Forno Alpi Graie, where you can find refreshments in the other tourist facilities. The village also constitutes one of the starting points for the route Alta Via delle Valli di Lanzo or for the simplest and relaxing Nature Trail that allows you to walk down along the Val Grande di Lanzo up to Ceres along rural roads at the valley floor.
