Descrizione

From Rifugio Vaccarone descend to the Gias barracks (2626 m), continue downhill towards the Tiraculo valley, cross over the path that comes up from Grange Valentino (G.R.V.), pass the Thullie grange settlement (in ruins) and with a gentle uphill you reach the Quattro Denti (2108 m). Continue downhill again to reach Le Grange (settlement) where the Trou de Thuille or Pertus of Colombano Romean (1980 m) is situated, a tunnel over 400 metres long carved by hand in the rock between 1526 and 1533 to bring water from the valley of Tiraculo to the hamlets of Ramats and Cels. Continuing gently downhill you reach the Clot Brun pasture (1912 m), before arriving at the hamlet of Grange della Valle (1744 m) and then eventually heading up to Rifugio Levi Molinari. To connect with the Sentiero Balcone path, follow path 814 (already walked along at the beginning of stage 1) to reach the village of San Colombano, a stage along the Sentiero Balcone path.
